BURGLARS PERFORM TWO JOBS

Get Sixty Gold Watches at Mawhinney & Ryan Store.

VISIT MILLER, STEWART & BEATON

Break Plate Glass Window at Jewelry Home with Bucket—No Trace of Criminals, Who Are Considered Professionals.

Two daring burglaries were committed early Tuesday morning in the heart of the downtown district.

From the show window of the Mawhinney & Ryan jewelry store, southeast corner of Fifteenth and Douglas streets, sixty gold watches were stolen. The furniture store of Miller, Stewart & Beaton, 43-1/2 South Sixteenth street, was ransacked, all the desks and drawers pried open, but nothing was taken.

Mawhinney & Ryan had the sixty gold watches displayed in a Douglas street window. The burglars broke the plate glass with a bucket, making a hole about ten inches square. The value of the watches was about $600. They were insured against burglary.

Entrances were effected to the Miller, Stewart & Beaton store through one of the doors, the plate glass having evidently been kicked in. The store was ransacked. Eight desks on the first floor belonging to salesmen were broken into and the contents scattered over the floor. Tables and chairs were overturned. In the office on the balcony of the first floor all the drawers were pried open and papers and books scattered on the floor. In one drawer were some checks, but these were left. From the private office of Mr. Miller a box of cigars was taken.

The burglars would have made a rich haul in the office had they been prepared for safe hiding, as there was several thousand dollars cash in the safe.

No Clue to Burglars.

There is no clue to the burglars. The police are satisfied that they are old hands at the profession. The daring manner in which they operated and the skillful manner in which they avoided everything that might lead to a clue confirms this belief.

Also the robbers were favored by most moon on the night. The crash of a bucket on the plate glass at one of the principal business corners of the city in the stillest hours of the night failed to arouse anyone and the burglars had plenty of time deliberately to take out the watches and escape.

"It is a great mistake on the part of jewelers to leave so great an amount of valuable goods in their show windows at night," said Chief of Police Donahue. "In this window there was $600 worth of watches, with no other protection than the window glass. There are too many men going around hungry who are desperate and very willing to take chances for such a sum as that."

OUR JIM DID SEE ONE BEAR

According to Sheridan Paper He Got Scared and Prayed for Help.

Though he returned empty handed, Mayor Dahiman did see at least one bear on his recent hunt in the Big Horn mountains, despite his assertion that the reason he brought back no game was because there was no game to get.

The Sheridan, Wyo., Enterprise, in the edition of May 1, which was edited by the Woman's club of that city, says that the doughty hunter met a bear on a narrow ledge and that he promptly "saw a scare" into the mayor who is afraid of the republicans or cow ponies. The ledge was too narrow for the mayor to turn around and retrace his steps, and, as the grizzly made no move to go, Dahiman, according to the Sheridan paper, prayed the Almighty for help.

The Enterprise fails to complete the story, and it is not known whether the mayor received the aid he sought and the bear was impelled to slink back among the crags and allow him to go on his way rejoicing, or not. In any event, the bear did not kill the hunter, neither did the hunter kill the bear. Dahiman refuses to be interviewed on the matter.

YOUTH FIRST TO BE INDICTED

Young Man Accused of Chloroforming and Robbing Employer in No. 1.

Edward Berger, a 20-year-old youth under arrest at Rock Island, has the distinction of being the first person indicted by the new grand jury. The bill was found Monday afternoon and returned into court Tuesday morning. Berger, it is claimed, chloroformed and then robbed his employer, Mrs. Pollock, who conducts a restaurant across the street from Union station.

Mrs. Pollock employed Berger and gave him a room with the cook. On the morning of May 1 she awoke early with an unusual feeling, which she afterward ascribed to chloroform. She missed two diamond rings, a watch and fob and $15 in money, which she had covered the night before under her mattress. Going to Berger's room she found he had gone and under his mattress was his cap and the pouch which had contained the money. It was learned he had taken the Rock Island train at 3 o'clock that morning. He is under arrest in Rock Island and the first person indicted by the new grand jury. Sheriff Bralley has gone to Rock Island to bring him back.

WRESTLER PROVES HIS STEEL

Officer Ed Morgan Shows Wife Better Some New Things at Tussling.

"Aw, go chase yourself," said Robert Williams, colored, when Emergency Officer Ed Morgan appeared to arrest him after Williams had performed the manly feat of knocking down his wife in order to possess himself of her pay check of $5.

Instead of following the advice of the courageous Williams, however, the officer tapped him on the head with his club and proceeded to grapple with him. Finding himself in the grip of a man—Officer Morgan being a professional wrestler—Williams' valor, which is of the type which thrives upon woman beating, faded at once and he was locked up.

Mrs. Williams works in the family of Mrs. Kimball, 226 St. Mary's avenue, and it was there that her husband came and demanded his wife's pay check. The check was returned to Mrs. Williams Tuesday and her husband was sent to jail for fifteen days.

Monday at midnight, the saloons of Florence closed and they did not reopen Tuesday morning. Nor will they open for nearly two weeks. The town is dry.

Since the recent election when the town went democratic protests have been filed against three of the four saloons. The council refused to grant the fourth license and so the saloon men have reindicated their applications for licenses under new names. The advertising was begun April 27, and must continue three weeks before the license can be granted. During the period between the expiration of the old licenses and the granting of the new the town must be dry.
